

I would like to join the 200,000 plus Americans who complained about the Super Bowl Halftime show. Probably the best thing I can say to the FCC is to Clean Up the filth on not only network TV but also on Tv in General. The big media companies need to know we're nearing the bottom and decline of general decency. I have two daughters and deplore their depiction on TV as mere sex objects.
Jerry Knauff